In nominating an individual as an Outstanding Woman Veteran, the following criteria will be considered. Although this application is open to women veterans discharged honorably, this award is based not on her military career or time in service, but on what she has done as a veteran:

- Provide a brief military history of the nominee.
- Explain her contributions to her (local, state, national, or global) community.
- Describe adversities the nominee has overcome.
- Describe any volunteer work on behalf of veterans or other organizations.
- Describe the nominee's involvement in reaching out to assist fellow veterans or other women in need.
- Any other outstanding attributes related to the betterment of veterans issues.
- Any awards, recognition, commendations, accomplishments, news articles or note worthy information
- Any additional information pertinent to nomination

This Award is submitted by:
